available at East Coast Baptist College Each year, EBC provides a number of scholarships to deserving incoming students based on their financial need. Students who are interested in applying for a scholarship can apply through the Financial Aid Office in one of the following ways: Through the website scholarshiplink.com. Scholarshiplink

is a website that allows students to search for scholarships that are both religious and non-religious. Using scholarshiplink.com will allow students to see scholarships they may qualify for if they did not apply through the Financial Aid Office. With the help of the B.U.S.S. (Before Under the Sun) scholarship program. Scholarships are awarded to students who demonstrate initiative and effort in reaching out to families that might benefit from scholarship funds. Scholarships are awarded to students who show promise and dedication to their future studies. Students who need financial aid can also be considered. Students should be ready to fill out the scholarship application by the beginning of the semester prior to beginning their studies. For those students who have special needs (e.g. blind, deaf, hearing or otherwise), scholarships are also available through the PACE scholarship program, also known as the PEACE Scholarship Program. Contact Andrea and Paul Harvey at 205-737-4010 or ebc.ufba@gmail.com for more information. ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- Just like any other day, Michigan quarterback Shea Patterson felt exhausted and couldn't sleep. He knew he had to get up early and throw, but he wanted to take his time. "I just wasn't up to it," Patterson said. The No. 2 quarterback was in the middle of a 23-20 upset victory against No. 7 Notre Dame. Michigan clamped down on the Irish defense and the Wolverines defense showed off its pass-rush ability. In the midst of a 4-1 start, Patterson threw for 287 yards and a touchdown and
